SAEKO ICHINOHE DANCE COMPANY PERFORMS AT UM

MISSOULA--

A performance The New York Times called "A quantum leap of the imagination" will bridge ancient and contemporary cultures of the East and West during the 2001 Mansfield Conference at The University of Montana.

New York City's Saeko Ichinohe Dance Company will present "The Tale of Genji" and "Bamboo Forest" at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 19, in the Montana Theatre of the Performing Arts and Radio/Television Center. Seating is reserved and tickets are $8 at all Tic-It-E-Z locations or by credit card at (888) MONTANA.

The Saeko Ichinohe Dance Company has a full performing and educational schedule with appearances at some of the finest venues in the United States and abroad, including the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., and the Chicago Orchestra Hall.

The company's television appearances include PBS's "Live by Satellite: Japanese Performing Arts in America," WPIX's "Best Talk," and JOMX-Tokyo's 500th celebration of "From Your Town."

During its visit to UM, the company also will provide instruction to the Department of Drama/Dance.

For more information and a complete schedule of the Mansfield Conference, visit www.umt.edu/mansfield on the Web or call (406) 243-5158.
